Matthew 6:25, 27, 31, 33, 34

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? 27Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life? 31So do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' 32For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. 33But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. 34Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

▣ I. His Reign v. 33

33But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

God is sovereign, omnipotent, omniscient and the ruler over all of His creation.

However, the designation "the kingdom of God" compasses that realm which is subject to God and will be for eternity. The rest of creation will be destroyed. Only that which is part of the "kingdom of God" will remain.

▣ II. His Righteousness v. 33

33But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Righteousness (dikaiousune) is the character or quality of being right or just; it was formerly spelled 'rightwiseness,' which clearly expresses the meaning.
