Michael Eaton, is a native of Dallas, Texas and the only son of the late Mr. Floyd G. Harper and youngest of two children of Mrs. Lula M. Thomas of Colorado Springs, Colorado. He is married to Kimberly and they are blessed with two daughters, Kimberly and Christal.

His home church, Concord Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas, has a membership of over five thousand members. The late Dr. E. K. Bailey was his pastor and father in the ministry. The Rev. Bryan L. Carter is now his pastor and successor of Dr. E. K. Bailey. Pastor Eaton served as the Singles Pastor of the Concord Missionary Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas under the leadership of Dr. E. K. Bailey. Pastor Eaton has also worked five years in the Singles Ministry of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship under the leadership of Dr. Tony Evans.

Pastor Eaton is author of the books, "How To Became A Good Thing," "How To Be Blessed As A Christian Single," "How To Choose A Worthy Mate," and "Overcoming Fatal Attractions". Pastor Eaton has been a contributing spiritual columnist in several West Texas Newspapers, State and National Newspapers and The Preaching Magazine, a national publication for preachers. He is a contributing writer for an Exegetical Sunday School Curriculum. Pastor Eaton has studied at Criswell College in Dallas, Texas and Southwestern Theology Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

Pastor Eaton served as the Senior Pastor of the Holiday Hills Baptist Church in Abilene, Texas.

Pastor Eaton is the Senior Pastor of the Historic (106 years old) Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church (NBC USA INC) in Pauls Valley. His vision for the church is to "Share the Love", throughout the Paul's Valley Community and the World. Our goal is to contact 500 people with the Gospel message and to add 50 new members to the Bethlehem Church family. We also want to baptize 75 new believers in the calendar year of 2007-08. We will reach this goal by being REAL with those who are in our network of friends and family.

(R- Relational E-Engaging A-Attractive L-Loving). The commercial campaign " For People Like You" is aimed to "Share The Love" and reach new souls in Garvin County.

Also under his leadership, he helped to give birth (through Bethlehem's brotherhood) to a men's movement known as " My Brother's Keeper". This is a men movement where men throughout Garvin County come to fellowship and hear the Word of God. These men are representatives of over 40 churches and various denominations, These men are leaders in their churches, homes and on their jobs who share a common goal to "Share the Love" throughout the Pauls Valley and surrounding communities. Each month, the movement is reaching men that are hungry for the Word of God. This movement has assisted men who are on the mission fields in Cameron Africa to support the less fortunate across the world.

Pastor Eaton also has an online ministry www.myspace.com/pastormichaeleaton with over 27,182 views and over 10, 648 friends. This ministry is world wide and is spreading the Gospel of Jesus and is "Sharing the Love" throughout the United States, Asia, United Kingdom and Africa.

Pastor Eaton is a supporter of "Relay for Life" where this great church is a generous sponsor to this initiative in cancer research. Pastor Eaton sits on the boards of the United Fund and Camp Burge Youth & Adolescent Development Foundation Inc.
